

FU Shu-wang 付수왕

“ArenA” Seoul Black Box Version as LAU Bong (Pinyin LIU Bang)

He entered the training class of the Young Phoenix Cantonese Opera Troupe in Zhanjiang, and has received the nurturing by the renowned performing artist Ms Kong Queping since young. He specializes in the first male role and the clown role. He has very solid training in basic skills in singing, acting, and speaking. After several years of on-stage performance of self-tempering, his arts and skills have matured. He is a rising star on the Canto-opera stage.

Of the Canto-operas that he has performed, the more famous ones include “Halting the Horse”, “Fifteen Strings of Coins”, “At the Crossroad”, and “Haunting by an Ex-lover”. He has been studious all the time, ever aspiring for improvement. He entered the HKAPA in 2013 and graduated in 2015. At present he works with HK Young Academy Cantonese Opera Troupe.

